Director's Message

We're half-way through February, and our Spring Break is not far off. We hope you're all settled in to a good study routine, and we hope you continue to enjoy the expanded and updated library group study rooms. Beginning February 19th and throughout the term, we offer a series of tech skills workshops as well as our Prep to Practice (formerly: Bridge the Gap) research sessions. Sign up for them on Symplicity, and look for advertising on our digital signs.

This semester we're conducting our bi-annual library / technology / communications survey. We look forward to your detailed feedback then, and we welcome input at all times.

– Roger Skalbeck, Associate Dean
